

HSA

Health Savings Account

IRS Section 213 (d) allowable medical expenses

- Alcoholism (amount paid for inpatient treatment, including meals and lodging, at a therapeutic center for alcohol addiction)
- Ambulance
- Artificial teeth
- Automobile modifications for physically disabled persons
- Birth control pills (if available only by physician prescription)
- Chiropractors
- Coinsurance amounts
- Contact lenses and related materials and equipment
- Crutches
- Dental treatment (but not cosmetic dentistry)
- Diagnostic services
- Eye exam, eye glasses
- Fertility treatments
- Flu shots
- Guide dog or other animal aide (amount paid for purchase, training and care of animals used by a vision-impaired or hearing-impaired person)
- Hearing aids and batteries
- Hospital services
- Immunizations
- Insulin
- Medical monitoring and testing devices (ex. Blood pressure monitor)
- Obstetrical expenses
- Orthodontia
- Over-the-counter medications
- Oxygen
- Physical Exams
- Prescription Drugs
- Psychiatric care
- Psychologist
- Sterilization
- Sunglasses (prescription only)
- Transplants
- Vaccines
- Vasectomy
- Wheelchair
- X-ray fees

*This is only a partial list and may be subject to change

*A full list of qualified medical expenses can be found at www.irs.gov